Augusta, Ga., Nov. 20.—The hunting season opened in this State today, and the number of hunters invading all parts of Georgia is the largest in its history.

SAW BATTLE AT JUAREZ

Mr. R. L. Milam returned yesterday morning from El Paso, and reports he was present in Juarez when the battle was fought there a few days ago, and the city fell into the hands of the Constitutionalists. He says it was exciting times, and that all non-combatants were not slow in seeking shelter. While looking for a place of refuge, Mr. Milam says he saw some distance from him two women, and he thought he would run along close to them as a matter of protection, as they would not be likely to shoot in the direction of the women. The race was short however, as the women outran him and left him to make his way alone. He found refuge in a house, and when the firing ceased, he ventured out and a number of dead soldiers were lying in the street in front of the door. Mr. Milam says he had always wanted to see a battle, but seeing one thoroughly satisfied him, and he does not want any more.

A Most Stupendous Sale of Fine Dresses and Party Gowns

Thursday and Friday, November 20 and 21

My entire stock of Fine Dresses will be placed on SALE for the days mentioned in my Ready-to-Wear section. The SAVING to customers will prove incomparable to any former reductions made by a Bryan firm so early in the season. However, we must admit that our purchases were based on more flattering conditions than we have realized; therefore we have decided to convert this department into CASH.

AN AWFUL LOSS TO US.

OUR ENTIRE STOCK OF WOOL DRESSES at one-third off regular price.

ALL TAILORED SILK DRESSES will be sold at a discount of one-third.

BEAUTIFUL PARTY and EVENING GOWNS discounted one-fourth.

Note carefully the prices, as they have been reduced in this ad.

MORE THAN FIFTY HANDSOME DRESSES will be submitted for your choosing.

Evening and Party Dresses

We will display fifteen beautiful models -- exquisite in every detail of fashion and material. Some are of the popular Shadow Lace materials and others of Charmeuse, Messaline, etc. Your choice of any one at a discount of 25 per cent.
